C-GRADE vs Traralgon West

A Tony Munnings, Charley Hamon, Bobby Dunne
Paul Evans

Lovely day for a record slog

WHAT'S ON in sport. A lot, judging by the number of faxes arriving over the past week.

So here goes, a run-down of sporting happenings around Victoria.

Let's start with the Valentine's Day Massacre that took place in the C Grade competition of the Traralgon and District Cricket Association.

CATS Cricket Club began the day badly when one of their openers, nicknamed "Lucky", fell for a duck.

And things could have been worse when No. 3 Darren Warwick was dropped before scoring.

But that was to be the last sniff the opposition in Traralgon West got, with Warwick going on to get 229no and Paul Veitch 242no.

After 45 overs CATS were 1-523, Warwick and Veitch putting on 521, the highest club, grade and league "any wicket" partnership.

MUST be the week for unusually named teams doing things because a football club named one-pub town north of Corowa.

This Saturday the good people of Oaklands let the camels loose in their annual camel races ($4000 trophy to the winner).

To add to the fun there's a tractor pull. Maybe Oaklands locals such as Jim Sandral, who played in Melbourne's 1956 premierships side, & Cec Rheinberger, of Fitzroy fame, will have a punt on the camels.

JOE Ahmad is a very useful ruck-rover in local Melbourne competitions, but apparently he's pretty handy with the willow.

Last Saturday, playing for Yarraleen Cricket Club, Ahmad scored a club record 199, breaking the previous record of 177 held by another useful footballer in Thorold Merrett.

CHELTENHAM Cricket Club is holding its 125th reunion on Sunday, March 1, with a celebration match. (Contact Ross on 9584 8543).

AND LAST, and least (I've always wanted to say that) take a look at
