Player and Visitor Policy

- All players shall play the game fiercely but in a manner which holds the club in high regard, and of the requirements of the Cricket Latrobe Valley, Cricket Victoria, and Cricket Australia.
- All players shall respect all other players, officials and visitors and act in a well-mannered behaviour.
- Any player bringing the club into disrepute, damaging equipment, or facilities, acting in a threatening manner, or being violent or fighting shall be dealt with by the officials. This may include match sanctions, payment of repairs, replacement of damaged equipment, or expulsion from the cricket club.
- All visitors shall sign the visitor's book and if refusal shall be asked to leave.
- All players shall be registered, and new players shall inform the club of any outstanding fines or monies owed to other clubs which may cause fines to the CATS cricket club.
